Dearest Danny,
May the bird of Paradise fly up your nose!! HEE HEE No just kidding. I think a lot of you, you know. You're a super guy and you have a good arm for throwing paper wads in study hall. HEE HEE.

God bless you, Danny.

Hugs & Kisses — Love ya lots

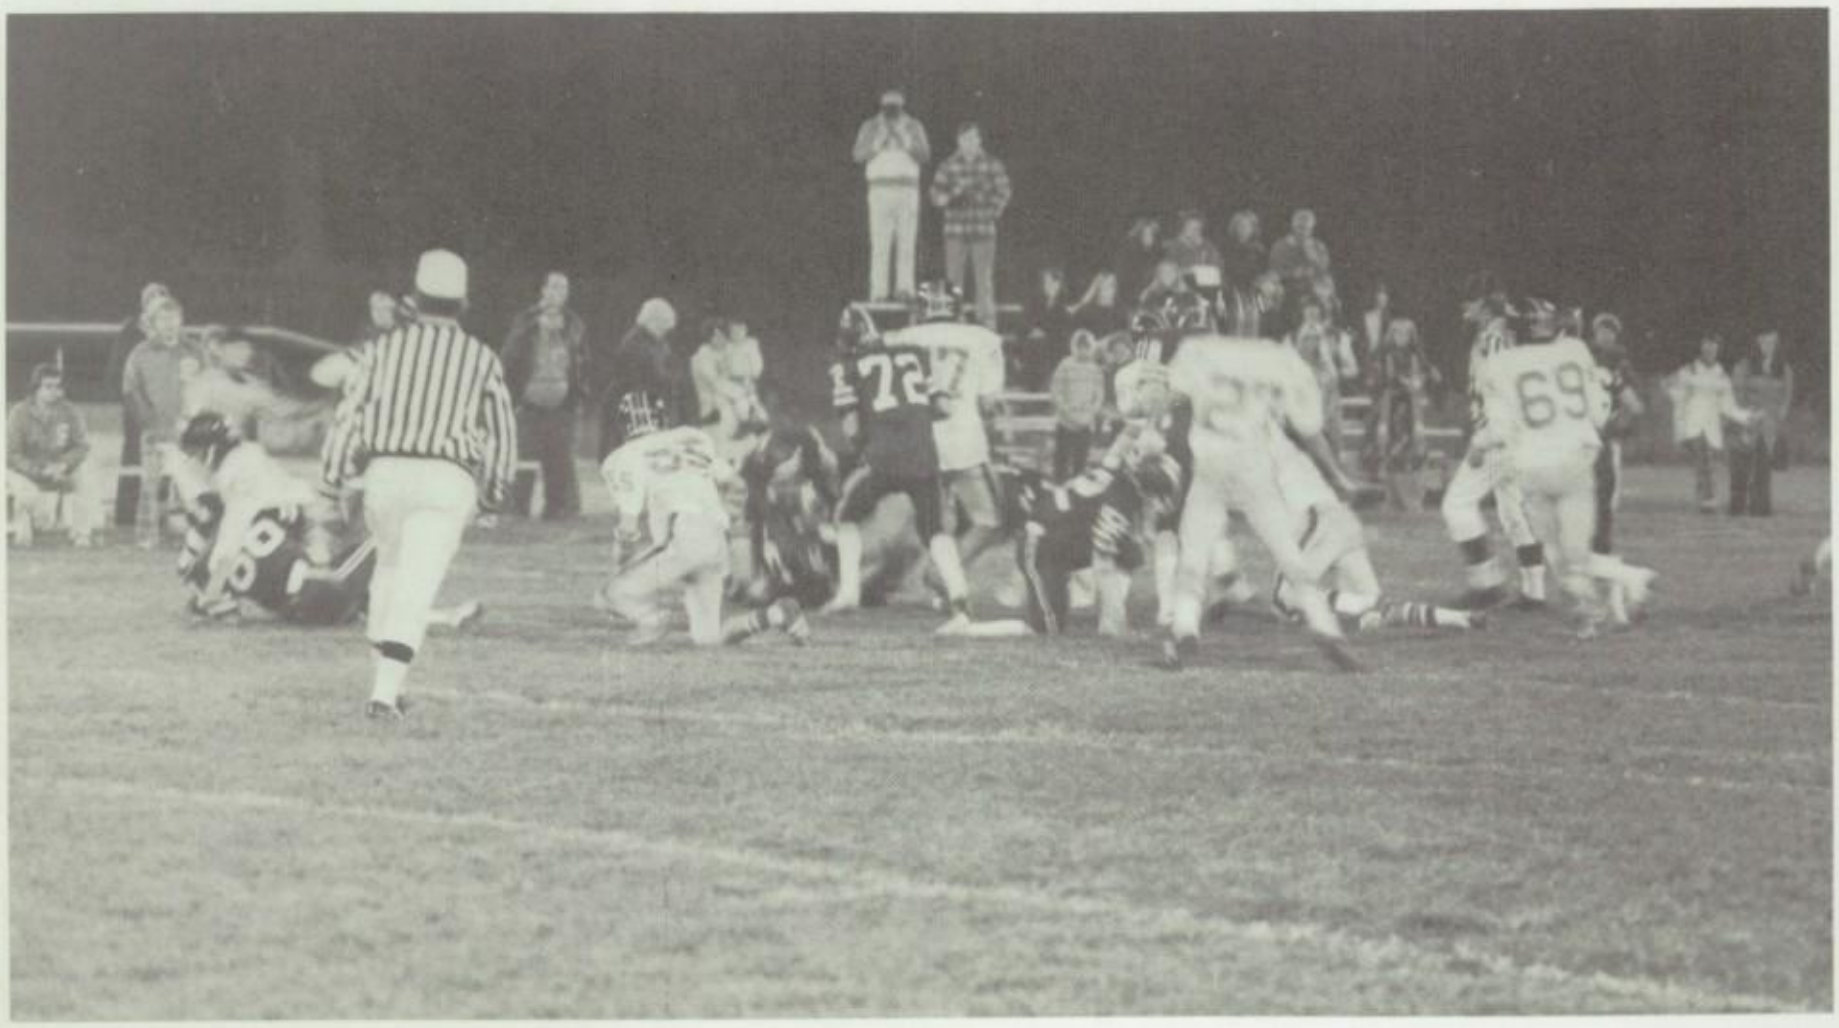
STUDENT LIFE

Homecoming 1976



Although defeated at this year's Homecoming game, it only inspired the team to fight harder. Half-time activities included the Sophomore Class taking first place and Lori Burkhart was crowned Homecoming Queen.

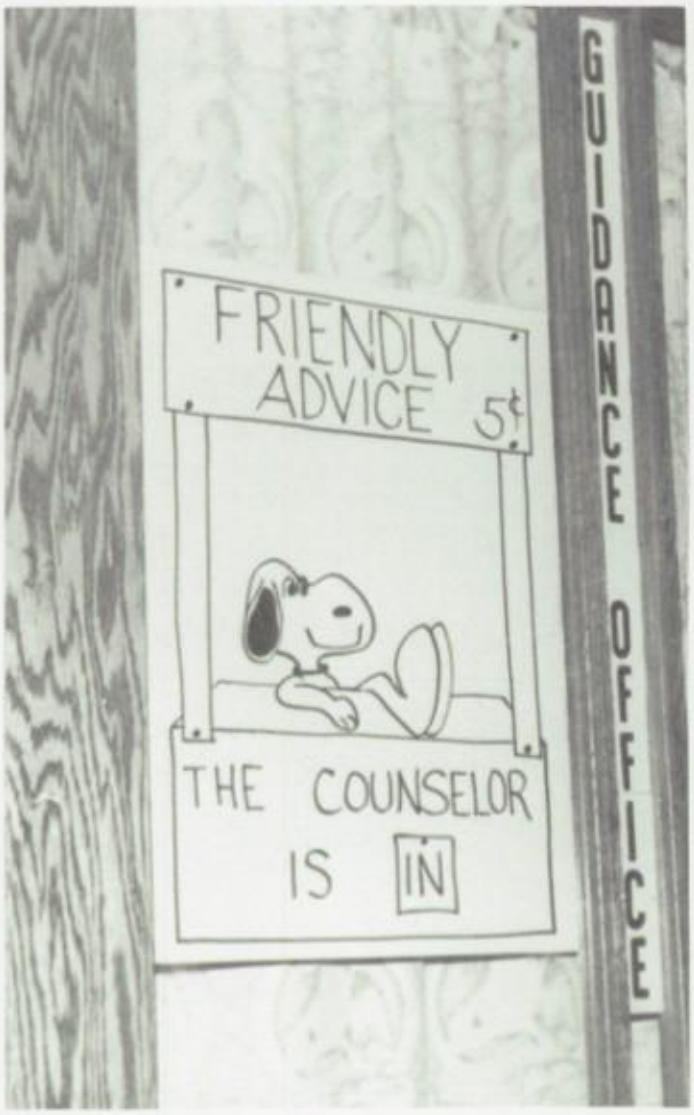
School spirit is found everywhere during the football season at PHS. Whether you are a cheerleader, band member, or just a participant at a pep assembly you are filled with spirit and proud of your school.

Your high school years are ones to be treasured. Though you wish you could forget them today, you'll want to remember them tomorrow.

The Variety of Routine

High School is routine . . . a dull game to be turned into something meaningful by those who endure it . . . Pittsford is far from a dull game . . . but made meaningful by its students and faculty.



GUIDANCE OFFICE
FRIENDLY ADVICE 5¢
THE COUNSELOR IS IN

Above: Yvonne ("Perk") Newell explores the amazing powers of the microscope. At left, Doug Cole gives a smile to the photographer while young Miss Baxter (below) makes friends with young Mr. Hepker.

Pittsford may be a small school but it is definitely not small when it comes to school activities. The students create their own entertainment, either through the enthusiasm of the Friday night game, the pantomime of a toy soldier or even the roasting of the high school principal!

FAREWELL

After it's all over caps and gowns and diplomas
Sometimes you wish you could start again
"puppy love" and dances and clubs
But it still isn't lost
books and teasing and memories
They're still there if you want them to be crayons and essays and proms
Only they're not so close

—Lynette Towne

DaN,
To a Super Guy iN our great Class of 79.
